Day-to-day programm

Tour profile / Level 2

Mostly flat with some hilly stretches in the Salzkammergut, completely flat in the Danube valley.

Day 1: Salzburg

Individual arrival. Use the extra time for a stroll through the picturesque old part of this cultural and fascinating city.

Day 2: Salzburg - Lake Attersee, approx. 60 km

Along the old railway-line Ischler, you will cycle to the Mondsee and soon reach the slightly rolling hills of the Attergau and the Attersee, a popular recreation area that is favoured by most locals and guests alike.

Day 3: Lake Attersee – Traunsee, approx. 55 km + boat- or train Ebensee - Gmunden

Today you will pass through the romantic valley "Weißenbachtal" and reach the banks of Lake Traunsee. You continue to Ebensee, where the ship awaits you. Enjoy the beautiful panorama.

Day 4: Traunsee – Lambach, approx. 31 km + train ride Lambach - Linz

This cycling stretch leads you through the villages of Laakirchen and Steyrermühl on to Lambach. In Lambach take the train to the state capital of Upper Austria and Culture Capital of Europe 2009, Linz.

Day 5: Linz – Strudengau, approx. 60 km

Enjoy the day with a visit to the monastery in St. Florian and stop by the oldest towns in Austria, the welcoming village of Enns. Your final destination today is the romantic Baroque village of Grein complete with the oldest existing theatre in Austria.

Day 6: Strudengau - Wachau, approx. 63 km

Passing through regions of Strudengau and Nibelungengau, you reach the famous Wachau, recently nominated as an UNESCO World Culture Heritage Area. Visit the unique Benedictine monastery of Melk or sample the local wine at one of the "Heurigen" (typical Austrian wine taverns).

Day 7: Wachau – Tulln, approx. 65 km + train ride Tulln - Vienna

Enjoy the ride through a few impressive villages. Travelling via Weißenkirchen and Dürnstein and then on to the medieval town of Krems, you stop by the impressive Benedictine monastery of Gottweig. In Tulln you transfer by train to the "City of Music", Vienna.

Day 8: Vienna

Individual departure or extend your stay in Vienna. Experience this great city!
