Day-to-day programm

Tour profile: Level 2

Mostly flat, some uphill stretches and soft hills. On bike paths and quiet side roads.

Day 1: Krimml/Wald

Individual arrival.

Day 2: Krimml/Wald – Piesendorf/Kaprun/Zell am See, approx. 57 km

Via Rosental you ride to Neukirchen onward towards to Habachtal, famous for its find spots of emeralds, to Bramberg (museum of local history). The local museum of Mittersill, the principal town of Oberpinzgau, is also well worth paying a visit. Via Uttendorf (national park-information-centre) and Niedernsill you arrive at Piesendorf, where the exhibition of the old Chinese town is well worth seeing. The European Sport Region Kaprun/Zell am See begins here at the foot of the lake with the glacial ski region surrounding the Kitzsteinhorn.

Day 3: Piesendorf/Zell am See/Kaprun - Lofer, approx. 56 km

You leave the upper Salzach Valley and follow the Saalach. The cycle path leads past Saalfelden and the famous pilgrimage town of Maria Alm. The Seisenbergklamm and the cave Lamprechtshöhle are worthwhile natural landmarks on the way to Lofer.

Day 4: Lofer - Salzburg, approx. 49 km

Following the river bank, you reach the “small German corner” (“kleine deutsche Eck”) with the spa town of Bad Reichenhall and the wide plain of the Salzburg basin. Through the Saalach meadows you reach Salzburg.

Day 5: Salzburg, day of rest

Today you stay in Salzburg. You can visit the fantastic places of the city of Mozart.

Day 6: Salzburg – Braunau/Prienbach, approx. 79 km

Cycling along the banks of the Salzach you reach Oberndorf (“Silent Night”-chapel). You go on to Ettenau and via St. Radegund to Burghausen (longest castle in the world). Through Weilhart Forest you cycle to the Inn-Salzach-lookout point and up to the biggest city of the Innviertel, to Braunau.

Day 7: Braunau/Prienbach – Passau, approx. 67 km

Partly following the river banks of the Inn and partly well-developed country roads, you reach the 1000-year old city of Obernberg and shortly afterwards Reichersberg Monastery. After this you head on to the baroque city of Schärding. You cycle via Wernstein along the river Inn to Passau.

Day 8: Passau

Individual departure or extension of trip or transfer back.
